LEARNING OBJECTIVE:

Career Awareness and Exploration

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Student has an opportunity to observe and participate in the workings of the Family Farm. An introduction to skills required to work with animals in a zoo setting. This includes animal care and public interaction.

REQUIREMENTS:

- High school Student
- Commit to a 3 or 6 hour shift
- Agree to a schedule in advance
- Submit completed Release Form (on reverse side)

POSSIBLE DUTIES:

- Clean animal areas
- Assist with animal feeding and grooming
- Encourage positive visitor-animal interaction
- Help with educational activities

WHERE TO GO:

When you come for your scheduled Job Shadow go to the reception office to the right of the main gate. Someone will meet you there and escort you to the Farm.

DRESS CODE:

It is an Oregon Zoo policy that everyone who works in animal areas at the Zoo must change their clothes. This means you must bring a second set of clothes (pants (jeans OK)/long shorts, t-shirt, sweatshirt, socks, and closed-toed shoes with rubber soles and backs) to change into at the zoo before your job shadow starts. At the end of your shift, you must change back into your street clothes before you leave. Bring a bag to put your street clothes and shoes in while you are working and your work clothes and shoes in when you leave the zoo.

- All clothes must be clean, with no holes or frayed edges and cannot have any inappropriate images or writing.
- Clothes must fit (no super baggy or too tight) and cover (no bare midriffs).
- Jacket for rainy/cold weather
- No dangly earrings, bracelets, or pocket chains

You will be provided with a vest and badge to wear at the Farm, but you should dress in layers to keep warm.

WHAT WE EXPECT OF YOU:

- Show up on time and prepared for work
- Be willing to help out wherever needed
- Maintain a professional appearance and attitude
